Women's Cameron Cup coming to Elk Point

By Doug Bassett

Review Sports

The good news just keeps on coming. First, the Midget Girls Storm will host Midget "B" Girls Provincials on March 22, 23 and 24. That's exciting enough, right? but before that, just as a warm-up, at the Storm's regular season tournament on January 19 and 20, the two top women's teams in Alberta will square off. The Cameron Cup is coming to Elk Point. That's right, the Edmonton Chimos and the Calgary Oval will be playing right here on January 19 at 6 p.m. Some of the players off these teams will be playing for the Canadian National Women's team in Salt Lake City, representing Canada at the Olympics. Also, as an added bonus, they will be putting on a skills competition as part of the tournament. So here's your chance - you get to see not only our girls (now 10 and 0) in action, but the women who will represent our country. Mark it down: January 19 at 6 p.m. This will be hockey at its best. Come out, see for yourself. You won't be disappointed.

RCMP Checkstops deemed success

By Sgt. Lyle Marianchuk

Elk Point RCMP Detachment

During the month of December, Elk Point RCMP increased their checkstops and focus on impaired drivers. We are pleased to report that 336 vehicles were checked during these checkstops without ANY impaired driving charges being laid or 24-hour suspensions issued. With the numerous Christmas and New Year's parties held, it is apparent that most people acted responsibly in relation to drinking and driving. There were three reported impaired driving offenses in the month of December, with charges laid in one of those incidents. As well, one 24-hour suspension was issued in the month of December.

Elk Point upgrades ambulance fleet

Elk Point and District Ambulance Service has purchased a 2002 Ford new Mirage Light Type II fully equipped ambulance. This will compliment the service fleet by this unit's placement in the provision of pre-hospital patient care. The unit will provide improved stable and advanced patient care throughout the area served by Elk Point and District Ambulance.

The purchase of this unit demonstrates the ongoing commitment made by the local service and the district ambulance board to provide the best care possible to the public being served. Fleet upgrade, a constant concern in any service, has been implemented over the past few years by Elk Point and District Ambulance.

Chamber looks at more tourism promotion

The tourist season is a few months away, but the first meeting of Elk Point Chamber of Commerce for the new year focused on maximizing the community's exposure to potential visitors to the area.

Kevin Kisilevich of Kalyna Country attended the meeting to explain that destination marketing organization's coverage area.

Kisilevich explained that Kalyna Country had started out as a society promoting an ecomuseum concept which concentrated on the historical and natural resources of the region. Over the ten years since its founding, the area encompassed by Kalyna Country has grown, and while the society is still operating, its tourism promotion arm has grown, thrived and become a destination marketing organization, or DMO. "We have now blended history with recreation, community-based attractions and events." He noted that "almost every county and town [in the area] is part of Kalyna Country," which offers a coordinated approach to tourism marketing.

The Town of Elk Point has been a member of the Heart of the Lakeland DMO, while the Chamber has been represented in the Midwest Tourism Group during the past few years.

Concern was expressed by one Chamber member that Elk Point was not being marketed at the Edmonton Home and Garden show last year, which neither Heart of the Lakeland or Midwest attended. Both groups were active at the Lloydminster Showcase, and did promote the community at that time.

Moving from the topic of tourism to community development, Town councillor Dennis Jasinsky told the Chamber that the County of St. Paul and the towns of St. Paul and Elk Point are looking at hiring a development officer who would be responsible for attracting business to the area.

A committee is being set up with two councillors from each of the three jurisdictions and one from each town's Chamber of Commerce to work on a feasibility study, using a multi-municipality government grant "which makes municipal cooperation a must," according to Jasinsky.

Peewee Avalanche second in race for the coveted Anadarko Cup

By Doug Bassett
Review Sports

At this time of year, there's lots and lots of hockey to watch, the World Juniors, the Viking Cup, the Under 17, the Mac's tournament and so on, but nothing can compare to the Anadarko Cup that the Elk Point - Dewberry Peewee Avalanche hosted this past weekend. The Avalanche took second in the "A" event, providing great entertainment for everyone.

The Avalanche were up and ready for the challenge, winning over Glendon Friday night 6 to 4, Mitch Walker with two, Travis McVeety, Tyler Loughran, Craig Dallaire and Brett Gadwa scoring singles.

This is rare, but in between the first and second games of the tournament, the Avalanche played a league game in Dewberry, early Saturday afternoon, winning over Neilburg.

Now, taking you back to the tournament, the Avalanche won over Cold Lake 4 to 2 on Saturday night, Dan Blacklock, Mitch Walker, Royle Bristow and Cole Brodwin scoring, sending them into the "A" final against Marwayne.

On Sunday afternoon, the Avalanche led

3 to 2 in the second, but finally ran out of gas in the third, losing a real tough one 7 to 3. Jordan Giesbrecht, Ryan "Little M" MacDonald and Player of the Game Mitch Walker scoring. It's a lot of work hosting a seven-team tournament, and a big hand should go out to all the parents for a fine job, well done.

This just in on the wire: Storm Warnings continue in the northeast area. All opposing teams, stay home or risk a severe pounding. Nothing in its path can seem to stop this Storm, which has been raging out of control since October and started off the New Year winning over Consort 11 to 2 on Thursday night to improve their record to 10 and 0. Sheena Flamand and Eryl Anton Roberts each with a hat trick, Brookelyn Blacklock and Kali Cousins with two each, and a single for Karly Shankowski.

Now here's another team to watch out for: the Atom Avalanche were playing on the road up in Lac La Biche, picking up another two points in a 9 to 3 win, Josh Weir with the hat trick, Jordan "Krank" Krankowski and Mike Marianchuk with two each, Kameron Ballas and Amanda Marianchuk getting singles, Ryan Marцениuk with two helpers and Jerin Bezpalko doing another fine job blocking the rubber in this one.

Saturday morning the Micro Novice Tornados were up early and blew into Dewberry to take on the baby Mustangs, winning 9 to 2, Jamison Wozniak with the hat trick, Brandon Rainey and Trevor Ballas with two each, Tyson Moneta and his cousin Wyatt Dewan getting singles, and some real steady defense by our own workhorses, Nathan Yarmuch, Dustin Dewan and Sheldon Jurak. Next game for the Tornados is Saturday, January 12 when they will be "on the road again," this time in Marwayne.

The boys have had a tough time lately getting any offense going, but things looked a whole lot better this weekend for the Dewberry - Elk Point Bantams in Marwayne's tournament, with the return of the very talented playmaker and team leader, Jason Kalychuk. A very good weekend for the Kozicky boys - defenseman Greg Kozicky with three goals, rugged forward Jesse Kozicky played some of his best hockey this year, banging in the corners, aggressive forechecking and driving to the net hard, and let's not forget Kurt "the Wall" Kozicky, as always giving 100% in the cave.

And now it's time for this week's K. A. Campbell trivia question. What player won the most Stanley Cups? Here's your clue - 11, and all for Montreal. This should be an easy one for my buddy Ron. Last week's answer: Doug Weight.

PROUD MARWAYNE CAPTAIN Jeff Marin and fellow players Drake Centazzo, Brian Nelson and Tyrone Hickey accepted the Anadarko Cup from Darrell Wickham. Below, the entire team and coaching staff celebrate their win.

Elks end 2001 with tie, loss

Elk Point hockey fans were eager for entertainment after the Christmas break when Dewberry Mustangs came to town on Friday, December 28.

Dewberry's Rob Brown got the game off to a fast start with a goal 20 seconds into the first period, off assists by Simon Giesbrecht and Garrett Wyness, and scored again 11 minutes later off assists by Wyness and Art Parr to give the visitors a 2-0 lead. Cory Laboucane narrowed the gap with 4:04 left on the clock to put the Elks on the scoreboard, Trevor Quinney and Ferlin Quinney assisting.

The first half of the second period saw Elk Point take control, with Predictions? Do we dare make them?

This is the time of year when we generally make predictions for the coming months. Looking back, we see that we didn't make any last January, and perhaps that is just as well -- who in our modern times could have predicted the incredible disasters which overtook the US in September? We couldn't have even predicted the roller coaster ride that gas prices took, up to 77¢ and back down again to less than 50¢. But, let's see what we can come up with for 2002...

Elk Point's new Town Council will work with the County and the Town of St. Paul on the most cooperative basis ever, toward making the region thrive as it has never thrived before, bringing in new industry, businesses and tourism attractions.

The Chamber and Town will sit down together and decide how to get the best bang for their buck while promoting the community to tourists, whether it takes one tourist association or two or three.

Increased use of recreational facilities -- even if that means renting them to groups from out of town -- will help pay the bills and will also encourage more local people to use them. The out of town groups will also spend money in our stores, gas stations and restaurants, and will find Elk Point such a friendly place that they will want to come back in the summertime and spend their vacations here, seeing the sights of yet another season.

Every vacant building in the business and industrial district will find a tenant, thus impressing the provincial government to the point that they decide we do qualify for a much needed road improvement grant.

And lastly, at least one, and maybe several, local teams will bring us gold and glory in provincial sporting competitions, because after all, we are the best, aren't we?

■ New Year's Resolutions

Get a life sport!

By Carol Moro

Take Off Pounds Sensibly

It's early January, time to make good on all those New Year's resolutions -- particularly the one about exercise.

You know physical activity is good for your health in so many ways, both short term and long term. You know that being active is bound to help you shed pounds and inches, too. So why is it so darned hard to get started?

Maybe it's because you haven't found an activity that's appropriate for your current fitness level. The most common reason for quitting a fitness program is starting out like gangbusters, getting sore or injured, and quitting in discouragement. If that's been your pattern in the past, start more slowly this time.

Another boost when starting or renewing a fitness regimen involves the type of activity you choose. You may have been a whiz at basketball in high school, but before you pull that old uniform out of the attic, consider other options. Among the best choices are "life sports", activities you can pursue at any point in your lifespan.

Here's a summary of the most popular life sports.

Walking allows you to start at nearly any level of un-fitness and increase gradually. It's easy on the joints, which is especially important if you are overweight. Walking also fits in well with any other kind of aerobic exercise, providing an alternative for "off" days. Walking can be done indoors or out, depending on weather, circumstance, mood, and your preference.

Happy New Year, everyone!

2002 is here, the Christmas season is over and the bells have welcomed in the new year of 2002. The year 2001 is over. It was the International Year of Volunteers. We were hoping to hold a big event to end the year but I guess we just ran out of energy or something. Sorry, everyone! Anyway, there are some people I would like to mention who deserve a big thank you.

To the Elk Point Community Lions (Formerly the Elk Point Lioness), thank you so much for faithfully each year operating the Santa's Anonymous activity just before Christmas. We do have needy people in our community and what you do is gratefully appreciated. Thank you. To all the individuals, clubs and organizations who donated to Santa's Anonymous, thank you for any donation you gave. It was greatly appreciated. Thank you.

To all the community individuals who helped families who needed help especially in their hard time just before Christmas. As individuals you are very valuable people. Thank you.

To all the Block Parents, thank you for being available if anyone needs your assistance. Thank you for being there.

To C.O.P.S. (Citizens On Patrol), thank you for volunteering your time to protect our community. Thank you. To all the members of the Community Policing Advisory Committee, your guidance to the RCMP and Town is greatly appreciated. Thank you. To all the members of the Interagency Health Committee, your contributions are valued. Thank you for taking the time to be involved. To all the people involved with operating all the sports groups in town, your contributions are valued and help make sport participation fun for those young people who are a part of those activities. Thank you.

To the Chamber of Commerce, thank you for your involvement in helping us to enjoy living in Elk Point.

Thank you. To the people involved with the FCSS Welcome Package, thank you.

To the seniors of Pioneer Circle, your contributions and involvement in everything that takes place at the Seniors Centre is very valuable to our community. Thank you.

To the staff at the Health Unit, Home Care, Health Centre, Extended Care, etc., etc., thank you so much for going beyond "the job" that helps to make our quality of life better. Thank you. To all the people involved with and who deliver the Meals-On-Wheels, thank you.

I could go on and mention many more people, but I am running out of space and I do need to mention one very important person in our community. She is Vicki Brooker of the Elk Point Review newspaper. Your reporting helps us to enjoy our community as we feel you care. Thank you so much for being the individual you are and giving freely to our community. You are a valuable person. Thank you, Vicki. And... Happy New Year, everyone.

Elks hockey

Doug Zarowny, assisted by Ferlin Quinney and Lawren Wowk, tied up the game. Laboucane scored his second of the game, assisted by Zarowny and Billy Quinney, while Kerry Loughran sent a pass from Ferlin Quinney and Wowk into the net. Greg Thronson scored for Dewberry 23 seconds later to bring the visitors back within one point of the Elks.

Giesbrecht tied the game early in the final period, with the score remaining tied at 4-4 through the remainder of regulation time and through the overtime.

Saturday, December 29 saw Kitscoty Monarchs come to town with every intention of reigning on the Elks' parade.

Although the Elks took the lead with two goals in the middle of the first period, Clayton Cardinal assisted by Henry Cardinal and Cory Laboucane assisted by Kerry Loughran, they were unable to score for the remaining 49 minutes. Sixteen seconds after Laboucane's goal, Trevor Leighton trickled one past the tip of Elk Point's goal stick to start a Kitscoty onslaught that never let up.

The game was tied on a shorthanded goal with 2:28 left in the first, the visitors adding three additional goals in the second to lead 5-2.

Penalties started to add up for both teams, continuing into a fast and furious third period where Kitscoty took advantage of Elk Point's almost continuous presence in the penalty box to score three power play markers. It was not until the home team was back at full strength that the ongoing shoving match escalated into full-scale battle which sent three Elks and a Monarch to the showers just under four minutes early, the game ending in a 8-2 win for the Monarchs.

Looking back at 2001

This week, we continue our look back at the news that made headlines in the past year, starting with....

AUGUST

Buddy Bensmiller of Dewberry won the World Professional Chuckwagon's championship at Strathmore Heritage Days, a title he first won in 1997, to cap off a season which also saw him win the Ponoka Stampede race meet.

Canadian Natural Resources Ltd. announced plans to extend a newly acquired pipeline linking Elk Point and Hardisty to the Lindbergh and Beartrap batteries, by burrowing under the North Saskatchewan River near the Windsor Salt plant.

Lois Yaremkevich won her sixth Elk Point Fair Grand Aggregate award since 1980, with the fair's second annual quilt show exhibiting 67 excellent examples of fabric art, some dating back as far as 1870.

Temperatures neared 35° C as 128 golfers vied for the Elk Point Oilmen's championship, which was claimed by Tom Parenteau for the second time in three years, with 2000 champ Robin Moroziuk second in the championship fight.

Minister of Economic Development Mark Norris was "overwhelmed" by the friendly people and beautiful scenery in his tour of MLA Ray Danyluk's constituency, which included a jaunt down the Iron Horse Trail between Elk Point and Heinsburg. Norris called the trail "a brilliant idea. It's a great way to showcase the area."

Not everyone thought that trails were an asset, however, and both pro- and anti-trail groups planned to campaign on the trail issue in the coming municipal elections.

Over 30 performers of all ages entertained an exceptional crowd at the Forts des Prairies Jamboree as another summer at Fort George and Buckingham House Historic Site drew to an end.

Elk Point's new waste management transfer station was open for business, with designated spaces for a wide variety of recyclable materials as well as bins for County residents' household garbage.

The Town of Elk Point met with four cabinet ministers and a group of MLAs to plead their case for funding for road improvement in the industrial park, but to no avail, because the government indicated they were out of money.

Fifteen members of F. G. Miller's 23-member graduating class of 2001 celebrated the achievement of their high school diplomas with Tanya Pankiw not only as valedictorian but also the recipient of the lion's share of year-end awards for her prowess in academics and sports.

SEPTEMBER

Matt Veer was named the All Around Cowboy of the Lakeland Rodeo Association after winning the Showdown Finals Calf Roping championship. His dad Peter went home with the Bill Ullery Memorial trophy for Most Sportsmanlike Cowboy of the Year.

Heinsburg celebrated their railway heritage with a day jointly hosted by the Elk Point Historical Society which included tours of their vintage railway station and restored water tower.

A fire protection master plan was brought forward for Town Council's perusal mere hours before New York and Washington were devastated by terrorist attacks.

Elk Point seemed very far from the scenes of tragedy as the community turned out in good numbers for Information Night, with special guest Henry "Gizmo" Williams signing countless autographs.

Three hats were thrown in the ring for the mayor's chair in the October 15 municipal election, while five candidates submitted nominations for four Council seats.

Petrovera's open house at Ferguson Flats outlined a drilling program which could see up to 140 new wells in the Ferguson Flats and Lindbergh areas, drilled into oil-bearing Colony channels revealed by 3-D seismic exploration.

Anadarko Canada also held an open house, giving a progress report on their Kehewin and Moose Hills exploration and drilling programs. Twelve development wells were already being drilled, with 26 additional exploration wells planned for the future.

F. G. Miller High School students received awards for the 2000-2001 school year, with Tanya Pankiw receiving four more awards and the Bruce Smith Memorial Award going to Tasha Yopyk.

Heinsburg High School students also were recognized with awards, with Sarah Daniels and Shantelle Moyah qualifying for the School Division awards.

OCTOBER

Seven of eight Town election candidates faced a good crowd of voters at a forum hosted by the Elk Point Chamber of Commerce prior to the election which saw Lyle Frisby elected mayor and Parrish Tung, Dennis Jasinsky, Dwayne Vogel and Manon Joice elected to Council. Ms Joice resigned shortly after the election due to employment commitments. A date was subsequently set for a by-election to fill the vacancy.

Incumbent Allen Young won the Division 1 seat in the County, but in Division 2, a tie between Sharil Baumgardner and Tom Kurek was broken with a draw of names from a receptacle giving Ms Baumgardner the win. County voters said yes to the trail referendum by a 1621 to 899 margin.

Elk Point United Church marked 75 years of service to the community with a day of homecoming and thanksgiving, with a packed crowd for the service, dinner and anniversary celebration and messages coming from many former clergy and parishioners who could not attend in person.

The Chamber of Commerce hosted a small but successful Small Business Week mini trade fair.

Carolyn Onusko celebrated 25 years of caregiving and compassion with her family and co-workers at Elk Point Health Centre, where she joined the staff in 1976.

Carvers at Elk Point Co-op created many fanciful jack-o-lanterns in readiness for Halloween.

NOVEMBER

Frog Lake First Nation proudly opened their handsome new Kindergarten to Grade 12 school, which was designed by Clarence Faithful with the assistance of the local school board.

Elk Point's own Abilities Network set up shop to serve the needs of clients in the Elk Point area.

F. G. Miller High School honored World War II veterans who were in attendance at their annual Remembrance Day ceremonies, with the large community celebration held two days later on November 11 itself.

Crusaders International collected an even hundred boxes of gifts and toiletries to be sent overseas for Operation Christmas Child.

Elk Point's new Town Council got right down to fulfilling their election promises when they approved plans to build an outdoor skating rink just north of the A. G. Ross Arena.

Outstanding growth of the Elk Point and District Lions Club led to the presentation of a prestigious membership growth award, with District Governor Ken Straughan on hand for a special joint meeting of the Lions, Community Lions and Leos.

The Christmas season kicked off with Elk Point Chamber of Commerce presenting their annual Christmas Extravaganza, in cooperation with a number of local groups.

DECEMBER

Heinsburg dedicated their annual Craft Sale to community boosters Colleen and Vernon "Babe" Sharkey.

Ten municipalities signed the land deal to take over abandoned rail lines from CN.

Petrovera introduced plans to drill as many as 27 new wells in the Ross Lake area.

Bernice Capjack-Hugo was successful in her bid for the vacant Town Council seat. Both she and fellow candidate Mae Hendrickson had run against Lyle Frisby for mayor in the October election.

Elk Point Community Choir presented their annual gift of song in the form of a delightful Christmas concert, and four local churches combined to perform a hugely successful cantata. Elk Point Elementary School students played to packed houses at both of their concerts, and F. G. Miller High School honored retiring teacher Ron Onusko at their annual Christmas Brunch as another year drew to a close.
